Loud Tie Day

Help raise funds for charity

Off The Fence

by wearing your most colourful and outlandish tie to work!

We invite all workplaces to take part in this fun business fundraiser! To get involved, simply join in with the official Off The Fence Loud Tie Day on Friday 26th May or choose a day to host Loud Tie Day at your workplace and let your employer and work colleagues know. On the day, wear your most colourful and outlandish tie to work and make a donation of £2 to Off The Fence. All funds raised will go towards restoring and enabling our life-saving services to continue in Brighton & Hove. Why not join us and help save lives this Spring!

Who are Off The Fence?

Off The Fence is a local charity in Brighton & Hove celebrating 20 years working with some of the most vulnerable people in our City. In this time the charity has seen lives saved and long term accommodation found for many members of our local homeless community; many vulnerable women have received practical and emotional support in times of crisis and our Schools & Youth team have provided guidance for young people in schools across the city facing isolation, abuse and exclusion.
